

INTESOL 2009 Annual Conference
INTESOL 2.0: Innovations in Pedagogy and Technology
Saturday, November 14, 2009

9:00 a.m. – 3:30 pm
IUPUI Campus Center; 420 University Blvd.
Indianapolis, Indiana

Keynote Speaker: Randall Davis
"Technology: Friend or Foe in the Language Classroom?"

A sample of over 40 workshops, demonstrations, and presentations:

- Inviting ELL Students into Critical Literacy
- New Approaches to Journaling
- Enhancing Classroom Presentations and Activities With Flip Video
- Project Stepping Stone: Creating Leaders in Hispanic Communities
- How to Enhance the Teaching of Writing with Corpus-based Materials
- "What do You Mean, Sources?" Students' Interpretations of Writing Assignments
- Redefining the Adjunct model: Transitioning Students Effectively to Academic Content Courses
- Creating Autotelic Learners: Democratic Techniques and Methods for Student-Centered Classrooms
- ESL Coaching That Makes a Difference
- Science with ELs in the Elementary School Classroom
- Keeping Up: Performance of English Language Learners on the ISTEP+
- EFL Students' Perceptions of Peer Assessment
- Addressing ELL Needs in the University Writing Center
- "A Picture is Worth a Thousand Words." Movies in ESL
- Making Commercials: An Activity to Teach Persuasive Writing and Speaking
- Developing Writing Clearly: Organizing Issues of Race, Death, and Culture
- Strategies for Inferring the Meaning of Unfamiliar Words While Reading
- Extensive Reading for ESL Adult Learners
- Sick Plants, Bugs, Weeds, and English
- Expressing Disagreement While Saving Face
- ePoliteness and ESL: Teaching the Pragmatics of Email to ELLs
- Innovations in English for Specific Purposes: Integrating Language/Content Skill
- Getting Serious about Being a Professional: How INTESOL/TESOL Can Help

Attend the Pre-conference Workshop by Randall Davis
on "High-Tech Low-Tech Activities for Enhancing Language Learning" from 4:30-6:00 pm, on Friday, November 13, Campus Center Room 309 ($10).

Other activities include poster sessions, publisher exhibits, a raffle, distribution of the 2009 INTESOL Journal, board member elections, and INTESOL's annual open business meeting.

Pre-registration ends on Friday, November 6.

Walk-in registrations on November 14 will be by check or cash only.

For more information, go to <http://www.intesol.org/Conferences/2009/conference09.html>

See you on November 14!